Assagao Village Walk

Assagao located in a valley, surrounded by lush green mountains close to Anjuna and Vagator beaches is the perfect postcard of a Goan village. The narrow winding streets are dotted with mansions and villas, the adorning shell windows, pillars, balcaos give the village its character. Walk through the village with a local resident who tells you the stories and legends of the place, the rich heritage and culture.

Later proceed to one of the famous cafes / bakeries / restaurants in Assagao. The ambience is relaxing, and the food is gourmet. Later proceed with your experiences

Mapusa Market

Vibrant, Colorful, chaotic and amazing, the Mapusa market is an experience that will reveal so much about Goa, its produce, culture and people. Walk through the vegetable market and see some unique fruits and vegetables, rice varieties and local spices. Transition into the potter's lane and experience some amazing pottery for daily use as well as handicrafts. From the pottery to bakery, bread was introduced into the sub-continent by the Portuguese here in Goa, the interesting story of a necessary ingredient in all our kitchens these days will surprise you. Continue the walk through this local market

HOLIDAYS

Day 03 | Goa | Forts & Museums

Breakfast at the resort, this day in the morning we shall visit

Reis Magos fort

The fort rises like a sentinel on the banks of the Mandovi river protecting the capital. It began as an Adil Shahi armed outpost in 1493 and was conquered by the Portuguese in 1541. It was reopened in 2012 as a cultural centre.

Museum of Goa (MOG)

A museum dedicated to the artists of Goa, here you can view contemporary art curated by celebrated artist Subodh Kerkar

Later lunch at local restaurant and proceed with your visits to

Houses of Goa Museum

Located in a beautiful village near Porvorim in North Goa. This small museum designed and curated by Ar. Gerrard Da Cunha will give you an insight into the history and evolution of the beautiful Goan house. Learn about local materials used in construction and how the design responds to the humid climate of the region

Later drive through small of the most beautiful villages of Pomburpa and Olaulim overlooking the Mandovi river to reach an ancient and historic fort

Corjuem Fort

Welcome to the other side of Goa, off the tourist map and away from the glam of the beachside. Corjuem fort is a small yet very significant fort, walk with locals to understand more about the history, the battles and the politics of an era that shaped the future.

HOLIDAYS

Day 04 | About Panjim and Old Goa

Early breakfast at the resort, proceed for your experiences today

Heritage walk of The Latin square of Panjim

Fontinhas is an old Latin Quarter in the city. It maintains to this day its Portuguese influence, such as narrow streets, old villas. The quarter shows how Panaji was during the Portuguese rule of Goa. We shall have a heritage walk through these streets and later an interactive session with historians.

After a light snack at Fontinhas, we shall get ready for our later experience.

Old Goa Cycling tour | Total 27 Km | Mostly flat road terrain | 03 to 04 hours

With expert guides, cycle from Panjim to Old Goa in electric hybrid cycles. Panjim is connected to Old Goa through a Portuguese era narrow Cause parallel to the Mandovi river and Mangroves. To cycle this stretch by the waters is an exhilarating experience. On reaching Old Goa the erstwhile capital, cycle past some of the largest cathedrals in Asia and know more about the history in the company of our proficient guides.

Later return to Panjim for late and relaxing lunch at a restaurant of your choice. Later proceed for a short and last experience of the day.

Panjim Mangrove Walk

The Mangrove walk is an elevated corridor through Mangroves, completely shaded and a unique experience. Enrich your knowledge about the amazing qualities and benefits of Mangroves while getting ample opportunities to capture some amazing frame.

Later return to hotel for overnight stay.
