INDIGO
HOLIDAYS

Day 03 | Goa | Forts & Beaches

Breakfast at the resort, this day in the morning we shall visit

Reis Magos fort

The fort rises like a sentinel on the banks of the Mandovi river protecting the capital. It began as an Adil Shahi armed outpost in 1493 and was conquered by the Portuguese in 1541. It was reopened in 2012 as a cultural centre.

Museum of Goa (MOG)

A museum dedicated to the artists of Goa, here you can view contemporary art curated by celebrated artist Subodh Kerkar

Siquerim fort

The fort stands overlooking the Siquerim beach and bisects the shoreline into two. This fort was constructed in the year 1612. The is an extension of the larger upper Aguada fort. The lower fort consists of a bastion and a section of fortified wall on both sides. During the 16th and 17th Century ships used to anchor next to the fort, the main intention of building the fort was to guard Goa against the Dutch and the French invaders

Later return to hotel for Lunch and then proceed for water sports and enjoyment at the adjoining beach till sun set.

Return to hotel for dinner and overnight stay
